

The Angels Lodge

Engelberg

What are you up to this autumn/winter?

Highlights of the season

Autumn Golf week from 15th to 19th of September.

Last big tournament of the season, 5 days in a row to test your limit and a great occasion to know new person and create friendship.

Alpine Cattle Descent on the 27th of September. Come and watch the cow, all dress up, parading down the valley. A truly Swiss tradition.

Alpine Cross country Golf Trophy on the 3rd of October.

A truly unique “golf” experience. A hike up as a warm up and a hike down for stretching!

2014 Ski Jumping World Cup on 20th and 21st of December. Come to see men from around the world flying over Engelberg roof!

European Outdoor Film Tour on the 20th of December.

Cease the occasion to start the ski season.

Snow Volleyball World tour on the 28th of February.

Ever played volley ball in the snow? Come and see how things are done!

Perfect entertainment for a ski-weekend under the sunny side of Engelberg “Brunni”.

Pro 7 Mountain Jam on the 6th and 7th of March, enjoy live music all over the station, on slopes and in the village.

We are still open until the 26th of October 2014.

The driving range and the golf course will be open until end of October, unless it starts snowing!!

This summer wasn't really hot and sunny, so we should have a cold, sunny and snowy winter!

The Angels Lodge Team will be back for the winter on the 1st of December 2014.

We already have some sold out weekends for the coming season, so don't wait too long before booking!

Don't forget to follow us on Facebook, you'll have a taste of what's going on!

Sincerely,
The Angels Lodge Team.
